extremely hard while also being humble, nice, and relaxed." "Our team is diverse and there is a strong sense of collaboration. People are willing to work together and help each other whenever necessary. Everyone's input is equally valued and we don't do blame allocation, when there is a problem, we work together to find a solution." "I work with an amazing group of people who are really smart but also know how to have fun. It is a pleasure to spend time with them every day." "Your work isn't limited by your title and your job description. There are so many opportunities for you to take on different roles and explore different interests." "Things change very fast and I like that because I feel like our company is really growing. We constantly have new ideas and new challenges. What you do on a day to day changes all the time." "What we're doing is pretty unique. We have a chance to define these experiences for students and rethink traditional methods of delivering content to students."
